The Charlotte Observer says that Capt. T. G. Arrington, of the Great

PLEASANT FAREWELL WORDS.— The Wellborn (Pa.) Agitator, of the 13th inst., thus refers to Mr. John Hinman, who, a few years ago purchased a handsome farm near Raleigh, and who has been a successful person in our midst and engaging in active business in this city. Says the Agitator:

"A very pleasant party assembled at the hotel of D. D. Holiday, in Anderson, Sunday evening last, and after the singing of a farewell supper tendered to Mr. John Hinman, late paymaster of the Fall Brook Coal Company.

"During the evening Mr. Hinman presented a handsome gold-headed cane suitably inscribed, and the following resolutions were offered and cordially approved:

"Whereas, Mr. John Hinman is about to remove from among us to engage in business in North Carolina, therefore we, his townsmen and friends here assembled, do resolve,
and cordially approved:

"That by his departure we each lose a long-tried and ever true friend, our community a valuable and enlightening citizen, and the company in whose employ he has so many years been, an accurate, courteous and zealous officer.

"That we recognize in him the true Christian, whose persistent and self-sacrificing in all good works, exemplary and consistent in his daily walk and conversation, and always prompt to extend his aid and sympathy to the needy and afflicted.

"That we earnestly wish him to his new home our most earnest and fervent wishes for his uninterrupted happiness and prosperity."

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.—A Raleigh correspondent of the Richmond Why this speaks of this Raleigh institution:

"A visit to the St. Mary's school the other night convinced me of the real truth of its far-famed excellence and high prestige. It is a school of the highest order, and eighty young lady boarders sat around the large hall, all engaged, some in crocheting, others sewing, and others reading, while the class of performers selected for the evening were rendering their pieces. After the music, the young ladies indulged in dancing the quadrilles and round dances until 10 o'clock and past. This is the routine every other Saturday night.

The large hall is decorated with an array of portraits and oil paintings, the most elegant and costly I have ever seen in this country. One portrait alone, which represents Bishop Ives confirming three of St. Mary's young ladies, cost two thousand dollars.

The Rev. Dr. Smiles and son are at the head of this famous school.
Nearly every State and city is here represented, Richmond being prominent among the number."

THE CONVENTION QUESTION.—Our friends in all parts of the State are requested to give us for publication letters on the state of public sentiment on the Convention question in their immediate neighborhoods, whether pro or con. We would be glad to lay before our readers information as to the views of the people in every county in the State, if possible. Who will oblige us.

under the circumstances, the banner school of the State.

After the singing of "Near the Cross," the Convention adjourned until 7 p. m.

NIGHT SESSION.

During the gathering of the Convention the choir of the Sunday School sang, "It is Better Farther On," and "Lamb of the Upper Fold," the audience room being densely packed.

President Heck called the Convention to order at 7 p. m. by singing "Welcome Home," after which prayer was offered by Rev. E.
Dobson.

The first subject under consideration being the "Influence of Sunday Schools on the World," was considered by Rev. W. B. Harrell, of Clayton, in an address of great merit, showing the effect of Sunday Schools on the world and the necessary material to compose such a body to influence the outside world, and showing that the Sunday School was the proper power to train a child to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors.

Mr. S. W. Brewer, of Raleigh, a young man of much intelligence, (late graduate of Wake Forest College,) next addressed the Convention on the above subject and handled his text in a masterly manner, reflecting great credit on the advantages of learning at the Alma Mater. His remarks were listened to by the audience with great interest from beginning to end.

At the conclusion of Mr. B's remarks the Convention adjourned "shall be there," after which the subject was further discussed by Rev. A. B.
Cobb and Dr. Pritchard.

The second subject for consideration being the "Relations of the Church to the World," was considered by Professor Redd, editor of the Biblical Recorder, in an able address of some length. The speaker successfully showed the power and influence of the church in the present age. "A little child shall lead them."

was now rightly applied to the Sunday School scholars that were really leading the churches themselves.

Dr. Pritchard stated that Prof. J.
A. Delf, of Murfreesboro, who was to address the Convention on this question, had written him that he was unable to attend, but would send an essay upon the subject. From some cause the essay has failed to reach him.

The choir then sang "Saviour Draweth Nigh."

Prof. C. E. Taylor, of Wake Forest, delivered an able and interesting address on "The Sunday School Idea, its Progress and Development." He gave the birth and existence of the Sunday School system, which did not find a sound footing in this country until between 1801 and 1810, the teachers at first being men, and the latter period it commenced spreading rapidly through the country, and now it is a household word in every part of the land.

After the singing of the "Crown of Life," the Convention adjourned until 9 a. m.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—R. S.
Dashiell, Esq., an excellent insurance agent, has been appointed General Agent of the N. C. Life Insurance Company for the State of Georgia.

Mr. Dashiell has been engaged in the business for many years and possesses all the qualifications requisite to success in our sister State. He passed through the city a few days since en route to Atlanta, which is to be the headquarters of the agency.

This is the first venture of the N.
C. State Life Insurance Company into another State. We are glad to learn that it stood a most creditable investigation and begins its career in Georgia under most favorable auspices.

LOCAL PORT-FOLIO.—A friend that sticks in adversity or prosperity—mudslide. A rose without flowers —a house without children. Misplaced confidence—sitting down on a stool minus a leg. No use—talking of this world's brightness or of sunshine to a man who wears tight boots. A diversion from the usual method of giving the nail home—bitting the finger instead of the nail head. Bad debts—owing grudges.
The only pain we can make light of—a window pane. The worst enemies a man can have—flatters.
Fast leaving—leaves.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.—Hickman Lodge of Good Templars of this city will have a public installation of its officers on Tuesday night next.

The following are the officers to be installed:

Henry W. Miller, W. C. T.
Miss Mary Crowder, W. V. T.
Jno. C. Armstrong, W. Ch.
Steward, W. R. S.
J. W. Bots, W. S. S.
Mrs. Quant, Busbee, W. T.
J. W. Lee, W. M.

The installation will be performed by N. B. Broughton, G. W. C. T.
The public are invited to attend.

DEATH OF CLAUDE B. SANDERS.— We are pained to learn of the death on Thursday night of Claude B. Sanders, Esq., of Johnston county, of brain fever, after an illness of only a few days. Mr. Sanders was one of the most gifted sons of Johnston county, one of the most prominent lawyers of his section, a classmate of the late Hon. J. R. Rogers, and a gentleman universally respected. His county casting her vote for him, he was elected to the North Carolina Legislature, and was afterwards elected to the United States Senate.

BASE BALL CHALLENGE.—The Athletic Base Ball Club of this city on Thursday night resolved to challenge the Elm City Club, of Newbern, for a series of games for the Base Ball championship of the State. Three games will be played, should the challenge be accepted, the first at Newbern on Wednesday next, the second in Raleigh, time to be hereafter agreed upon, and the third if a tie in Goldsboro.

LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA.— See advertisement in to-day's NEWS.
In St. Louis, on the 12th November next. One of the many good features in this Company is, that no important changes are made without consulting the policy-holders, who are now asked to send in their proxies to send proxy, on the 12th next month.

THE HICKORY FAIR.—The Third Annual Exhibition of the People's Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be held at Hickory, N. C., on the 11th, 12th and 13th of November. We acknowledge an invitation to be present, and will endeavor to be present in propria persona.

TO AGENTS.—Some of our agents are doing themselves and the party service by remitting for old subseribers and many new ones. Others are a little dilatory. We would like to hear favorably from all our agents.

Louisiana Matters.

NEW IBERIA, October 30th.—Five hundred real estate owners of the Parish of St. Martin, have just arrived to offer themselves as bondsmen for seven of the St. Martinville prisoners. Messrs. Dorcort, Dugas and E. Garabino, of that Parish, were arrested yesterday.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Destructive Fires.
SUNBURY, Pa., October 31.—A large fire broke out at Selins' Grove last night in the stable of George Schur, and in consequence of a heavy wind prevailing, over two squares in the central part of the town were completely burned. Aid was summoned from Sunbury, but the fire was got under control before its arrival. The Keystone and National Hotels, Central School House, Methodist church and the Times printing office, were among the buildings burned. About sixty buildings were burned in all. The loss is estimated at one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. It is supposed that it was an incendiary fire.

CINCINNATI, October 31st.—C. T. Dumont's foundry was burned last night. Ten families in the adjoining tenements, were also burned out.

New York, October 31st.—Conkling addressed a large Republican meeting to-day without any allusion to the third term.

The Episcopal Congress.

New York, Oct. 30.—The Committee of Conference on amended Canon on Ritual, made a report which amended the original Canon reported by the Committee by striking out in specifications the clauses relating to the use of incense and retaining the efficacy in any part or place of public worship, with a few other unimportant changes. Rev. Dr. DeKoven, of Wisconsin, spoke briefly on this report, and said that he should oppose it on account of unconstitutionality. He was of the opinion that none of these ceremonies could be suppressed by the Canon, but only by rubrics in the prayer-book. Further discussion was cut short by the order of the day being called for.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It is reported that there are fifteen hundred persons sick with typhoid fever in the town of Darwen Over, County of Lancashire, being more than one-sixteenth of the entire population.

SLEEPING WITH A SNAKE.—Mr. Thos. Ryan, who lives near Spring Hill, in Campbell county, very unwillingly, as a matter of course, slept with a large moccasin snake a few nights ago. It seems that his wife in making up the bed, discovered the reptile snugly coiled up under the pillow, and at once called her husband, who dispatched the unwelcome bed-fellow.—Times-Herald.

PLENTY OF SUGAR.—The latest reports from the sugar districts of Louisiana indicate an uncommonly large yield of cane, with an unusual proportion of Saccharine matter, and it is believed that the crop will be the largest made in the State since 1861.

Rev. John King, a vicar in the diocese of Lincoln, England, believes that horse racing improves the breed of horses, and has an animal of his own in almost every important race; but the Bishop of Lincoln is of a different opinion on the subject of racing, and there is a lively correspondence.

On the Annuity River they have a queer plan of performing capital executions. They give the culprit Chinese brandy until he becomes unconscious, and then they bury him alive. Before he recovers consciousness he is, of course, smothered by the earth, and so it is a merciful plan.

At the Paris Morgue there was exposed this month the body of a young woman, aged about twenty, so wondrously beautiful that the authorities caused a mould to be taken of her. She was seen to throw herself into the river.

An unfortunate and fatal difficulty occurred near Saratoga, Wilson county, on the 28th, between Frank J. Woodward, Esq., and Mr. Josiah Hensin, resulting in the death of Mr. Hensin. Mr. Woodward is a well respected citizen of Wilson, and it is thought acted in self-defence, as Hensin had been heard to threaten his life several times on the day of the killing.

The Franklin Courier strongly urges the election of C. M. Cooke, Esq., a talented young Senator from the 7th District, for the Presidency of the Senate. Mr. Cooke possesses in a marked degree the qualifications needed in a good presiding officer. He represents an exceptional true and patriotic people, who would be proud of his elevation to the office mentioned.

The following horses, some well known to the turf as flyers, have been entered for the races at the Charlotte Fair:

Concord furnishes, among others, the following trotters: Basil Duke, Spider, Hamstring, Rebel, and McIntosh's grey horse; and the following runners: Vandal, Colt and Rooster. All of these are horses well known to the turf.

Rutledge's stables furnish Joe Johnston, Billy and other horses, the names of which are not just now at our command.

Hitchcock's horses, which are already here, are: Limestone, Joe, Mollie Darling, Letitia Haight, Quits, Galway and Century—all runners. Barry enters, Notre Dame, Resurrection, Calah, John Demons, Red Dick and others.

Bacon enters Grainger, Jim Hinton, and the balance of his stable.

Others will be entered but this ensures good racing.

The Stateville American says: "W. D. Marshall, of Alexander county, met a quiet and estimable citizen, as we learn from Dr. J. P. Long of this place, was severely stabbed by his brother, on last Thursday, without any provocation, and lies in a critical condition. Mr. Marshall had been to Tennessee to obtain his wife, and that of a tenant who resides near his residence, and on his return went to the house of his tenant to deliver that portion of the mail matter belonging to him. At the house he found his brother, who was much intoxicated, abusing the tenant and his family, and mildly attempted to persuade him to desist and go with him home. The two went out at the door together, when the intoxicated and murderous brother wheeling in front, plunged a very long knife into the stomach and abdomen of his brother, causing the intestines to fall out and a large flow of blood. Mr. Marshall is well known to us as a quiet and estimable gentleman, while his brother is said to be quite the reverse, and a dangerous man. The offender was arrested and confined in the Taylorville jail. The American editorially says that Mr. Marshall has since died of his wounds.

FIFTH AND LAST GIFT CONCERT IN AID OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.
A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—The managers have determined to have the drawing of a large and valuable lot of tickets for the Fifth and Last Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky on the 30th of November next. We believe now that all the tickets will be sold, and that the drawing will be a full one; but whether all are sold or not, the drawing will nevertheless certainly come off on the day appointed. The special object of this card is to call a meeting of the ticket-holders at Public Library Hall, on the 20th of November, to make arrangements in connection with the committee appointed by the Trustees to superintend the counting of the tags representing the number of tickets sold. While there is no actual necessity for the presence of ticket-holders, as under our arrangements the lotteries of all are equally cared for yet at the same time I would greatly prefer that as many of those interested as can, would attend this meeting and see each for himself how perfectly fair and impartial the distribution must be. Every arrangement has been made for the sale of the tickets, and the remainder of the tickets, and whatever is done must be done promptly.
